Personally Speaking

by Ian McNeill

Good afternoon all.
A WARM welcome to Port Vale players and officials. At time of going to press Port Vale are still manager-less. This season has been particularly trying for them, as they struggle to find some consistency. However, the basics of a first class club are there and sooner or later they will climb again.

Port Vale

Port Vale has provided quite a few entertaining times during my career as Wigan Manager. In fact last season's epic game when we came back from three down to win 5-3 sticks out in my mind. But during my first spell as manager of Latics I remember drawing Port Vale in the F.A. Cup. We had a tremendous battle here and drew 1-1 in front of 14,000 fans. We were not considered favourites for the replay but after another highly competitive game we drew 2-2 in front of 9,000 fans at Vale Park. The second replay was played at Old Trafford, with a crowd of 17,000 attending. It was only in the last minute of extra time, after 329 minutes of exciting cup football that Port Vale grabbed the clinching goal.

I trust this afternoon's match is every bit as entertaining.

Enjoy today's match.
Ian McNeill.

IT IS a pleasure to have as visitors today the directors, staff, players and supporters of the Port Vale Football Club. By a strange coincidence, our first fixture in 1979 was also against the "Valiants", but at Vale Park, Burslem, and not at Springfield Park. It is to be hoped, however, that today's fixture is not the prelude to severe winter conditions, as was last year's January fixture.

Many of us can still remember the epic struggle against Port Vale in Ian McNeill's first period of team management at Wigan, when after three testing games Port Vale edged us out of the F.A. Cup almost on the final whistle. Last year's two league games against our Staffordshire rivals also proved to be nail-biting, tense affairs with the "Valiants" gaining a narrow 2-1 victory at Burslem on an ice-rink of a pitch, while our boys almost demoralised Dennis Butler's side, in the return game at Wigan on Good Friday, with a five goal burst between the 66th and 85th minutes, after trailing 0-3 with less than half an hour to play!! If we were to get a repeat of that dramatic encounter, many of our supporters would tempt providence by topping-up on their New Year's Eve celebrations.

Port Vale have made a rather disappointing start to the 1979-80 season, and, at the time of writing these notes, the club is in an uncharacteristically low league position. However, the appointment of a new manager is imminent, and, such is the club's pedigree that, given time to settle in, whoever the new man turns out to be, we are sure that he will very rapidly get to grips with the situation and move his side into a much more comfortable and respectable league placing. Certainly the new manager will get every chance to do well because not only are the Port Vale directors most discerning and anxious to promote positive entertainment, but also, off the field of play, the commercial side of the club's activities is one of the best, if not the best, in the Fourth Division. Indeed, it is not without significance, that we modelled our first lottery ticket on that being promoted by the Port Vale Club twelve months ago. At that time Mr. Roy Cope was the source of much help and encouragement to us.

Thumbing back through Port Vale's past achievements, we discover that such well-known personalities as Jackie Mudie, Sir Stanley Matthews, Gordon Lee and Roy Sproson have all occupied the manager's chair at Vale Park. Furthermore, Port Vale are one of only four clubs to reach the F.A. Cup Semi-Final while in the Third Division (1953-1954). The club's best season in the Football League was 1930-1931, when their side finished fifth in the Second Division. Strangely enough, for all their cup fighting traditions, Port Vale have yet to progress beyond the Second Round of the Football League Cup.

Welcome then to our colleagues and friends from the old town of Burslem. We trust you will enjoy your visit to Wigan on the first day of the New Year, and witness an exciting and sporting game of football, before returning safely to your homes tonight to continue the seasonal celebrations. All best wishes for a more successful and rewarding 1980.

CHRISTMAS and New Year is not only the time for presents and holly, in football circles it represents a very important period in the soccer season. It is the halfway mark, a time to take stock of what's past and of what the second half of the season may hold, time for a half term report. A very pleasing first half term which in spite of a recent heavy defeat at Oldham still left the Reserve Team near the top of the table. Last year's head boy Tony Quinn continued to excel and pushed himself into the higher grades, and has settled in very well and is now an accepted member of the first team squad.

Fortune did not shine too brightly on his pal Pop Freeman, an equally important member of last year's team, who sustained a serious injury before the season started and is only now getting back to anything like his old form. Hopefully he will have more luck in 1980.

The successes of last year's Reserve Team Glen Buckley, Alan Greenhalgh, Steve Yates, Brian Cunliffe and Alan Harrison have helped to push us to the forefront again this season and with youngsters like Keith Mayer, George McAlister, Mike Quinn, David Glenn and Mark Wignall pushing for regular places in the team, the prospects for the second half of the season look bright.

Player Profile

Photograph by courtesy of The Wigan Reporter

DEREK BROWNBILL (Forward)

DEREK BROWNBILL was born in Speke, Liverpool, and received his early education at St. Ambrose School, and strangely enough played in the same young team as Peter Houghton and Tommy Gore. Derek continued his education at St. Xavier's College, where he not only played but also captained school sides for a five-year period. He was also a more than useful player at tennis and cricket.

At fifteen years of age, Derek signed amateur forms for Liverpool, where he played in the junior sides. At the age of eighteen, he signed on full professional terms, and played in the F.A. Youth Cup Final against Aston Villa, when for once Liverpool finished as runners-up, but Derek had the consolation of scoring a goal at Anfield in the second leg of the final.

Six months later, Derek was to make his Football League debut for the "Reds" at Birmingham City in a 1-1 draw. Later in the same year he was substitute for several UEFA Cup games. Unfortunately, Derek found it difficult to tie down a first team place at Anfield, and, at the age of twenty-one, he moved to Port Vale, where he was to play over one hundred games. The highlight of Derek's stay at Vale Park occurred when the "Valiants" reached the Fifth Round of the F.A. Cup only to lose out again to bogey team, Aston Villa.

After a period of disenchantment and disappointment, Derek joined Cleveland Cobras for a summer of American Football before joining Wigan Athletic for their venture into League Football.

Very popular with the fans, Derek is a forceful, hard-working, enthusiastic player who always makes things happen when he steps out onto the park. Plagued recently by a series of niggling injuries, Derek Brownbill is sure to play a major part in Wigan's New Year match programme.

Married and anxiously looking forward to a new arrival in the family in the near future, this quiet unassuming man has our best wishes for a very happy 1980.

FORT KNOX FLOOR SAFES

Down Memory Lane

"LET NO MAN challenge me, when I say that the salute which rang from this 46,000 crowd at the end of the game was a salute exclusively for wonderful, wonderful Wigan."

That was just one of the many accolades heaped on Latics by the National Press after their epic F.A. Cup Third Round tie with Manchester City at Maine Road on 2nd January, 1971. The crowd, made up of probably 20,000 Wigan fans, was the second biggest of the round and proved to be Manchester City's biggest for that season.

It was a real gala day for everyone connected with Wigan Athletic. The Wigan side held out the might of the First Division outfit until the seventy-second minute when goalkeeper Dennis Reeves' boot split while he was taking a goal-kick. The ball went straight to Neil Young who switched it inside to Colin Bell, and, before the Wigan defence could move, the ball was in the back of the net. It was tragedy for Wigan, and afterwards Dennis Reeves blamed himself for the defeat but he needn't have bothered. He, like every other Wigan player, had played the game of his life to give high-flying City one heck of a scare.

Indeed, had it not been for City goalkeeper Joe Corrigan, who denied Latics' centre forward Geoff Davies with two world class saves late in the match, then who knows what might have happened.

But, with the Match of the Day cameras there to take it all in, Wigan revelled in the praise they received.

The City players trooped off at the end more than a little relieved at not being knocked out of the cup by a non-league side and the magnificent standing ovation from every person on the ground showed just what they thought of Latics' efforts. Many people thought that, at the end of the season, Wigan would walk into the League, but that's another story.

Fourth Division Focus

by Chris Gill

WITH THE season approaching the half way mark it is now becoming clear that competition in the Fourth Division for promotion places will probably be more fierce than anywhere else.

Portsmouth look to be racing "certs." Manager Frank Burrows is said to have been told to "get promotion at all costs". As the average football fan will be aware he has splashed cash about on players as if it were going out of fashion.

They've picked up Ian Purdie from Latics, Kenny Todd from Port Vale, Phil Ashworth on a free, Steve Perrin from Plymouth Argyle and David Gregory from Bury — to name just a few. By my reckoning Pompey must now have cover in every department, but what a price to pay!!

Elsewhere, Huddersfield Town seem to have lost their way a little, while Bradford City are still looking to recover their best form and Walsall look a bit lightweight.

The shock sides this year are undoubtedly Doncaster Rovers who applied for re-election last year, and Newport County who themselves are no strangers to the perils of re-election.

The emergence of new contenders for promotion is excellent for the game. What isn't is the disappearance of the division's top players.

George Riley joined Cambridge United recently from Northampton Town for £180,000 plus; Aldershot lost John Dungworth to Shrewsbury and it now seems likely that the old master himself, Ted MacDougall, is set for a new lease of life with Norwich City.

In the New Year it will be interesting to see how long players like Houghton and Hinnigan (Wigan Athletic), Penn and Paul (Walsall) Newton and Houchen (Hartlepool United), Cooper (Torquay United) and Feeley (Hereford United) can evade the clutches of the top clubs.

Stockport County's new manager Jimmy McGuigan will soon be seeking out a replacement for Ken Fogarty, who is shortly set to leave for America. Lincoln City have persuaded First Division Stoke City to loan them goalkeeper Eric McManus as they bid to revive their recently flagging fortunes.

York City are another side intent on strengthening their squad. The player Charlie Wright has his eye on at the moment is Leeds United's reserve player Billie McGhie.

Inside Information

by I. Spy

ALTHOUGH the staff of the football club have not quite reached the stage of picking up their alarm clocks and saying "Good morning, Wigan Athletic," they are getting very near to responding to bells with the trained reaction of a Pavlovian dog. One would imagine that any carol singer brave enough to render "Joyful Christmas Bells" at the homes of any of our staff is in grave danger of an Ebenezer Scrooge type reply of "Humbug".

Events in the past seven days must have strained S.T.D., telephone kiosk, and all Buzby's resources to the limits, dealing with the almost incessant stream of enquiries about the F.A. Cup tie with Northwich Victoria. Even at home our staff have done a magnificent P.R. job soothing the cup-fevered breasts of our fanatical supporters.

To help our followers who may experience the frustration of being unable to contact our match information centre, on telephone Nos. Wigan 44433 and Wigan 43067, on future occasions, we are pleased to give additional guidance. Whenever a game is postponed, our first task is to contact the local press, regional T.V. and radio Sports Desks, and the firms responsible for the transportation of our fans. Any local friendly business person who is likely to receive enquiries is also contacted.

We are only too delighted to perform this very necessary service for our fans, but such is the volume of enquiries we would appreciate it if calls were kept short and to the point. We do not wish to be impolite but any prolonged conversations about the F.A., the Football League, our opponents and disasters associated with previous games which have involved fruitless journeys and inconveniences only add to our pressure and cause even greater frustration for the supporter who is trying to contact us on telephone lines which seem to be constantly engaged.

All best wishes for the New Year.

HELLO! everyone, and welcome to our first game in 1980. A Happy New Year to all supporters and members and we sincerely hope that you have all had a great holiday.

The celebrations at the club were first class and I am sure that all our members enjoyed their nights out at the "Latics".

We start the New Year off tonight with the always welcome and very popular Christopher Wren, and, at the weekend, yet another two top-liners:-

Saturday, 5th Jan.- Richard Domani

Sunday, 6th Jan - Duggie Wakefield

Up to the time of writing our Sunday night members' draw had not been won, and is steadily increasing.

Why not come along on Sunday, it could be your lucky night!!

Another reminder is that we have full bingo sessions every Tuesday and Friday night at 8.30 p.m., with good jackpots to be won.

Supporters Club News

Don't forget next Monday, 7th January, when our quiz team meet Rochdale at our club in the 'second leg' of the Federation Quiz.

Hoping to see you soon.

Sincerely,

Peter Woods.

A last word from the chairman . . .

ON BEHALF of Wigan Athletic Football Club, I am delighted to welcome the Chairman, Directors, Staff and Supporters of the Port Vale Football Club to Springfield Park for the first game of 1980. Last years' game at Wigan between the two clubs produced one of the most exciting games and one of the biggest turn-outs in match fortunes ever witnessed at Springfield Park. After trailing 0-3 after 65 minutes, our side ran riot in the last 25 minutes, scoring five times. If today's encounter only produces half the drama of the game played last Good Friday, the New Year will have started momentarily.

These notes are being prepared prior to the saga of postponed and re-arranged games in connection with our Cup-tie against Northwich Victoria. Naturally enough, we are hoping by this time to have progressed to the Third Round of the premier national competition. A visit to Stamford Bridge, the home of the famous Chelsea Football Club by Wigan Athletic would be yet another milestone in the history of the club. If it is not tempting fate too much, I can already hear the hoarse, proud voices of Wigan fans baying out their support for their favourites. Football is such a funny game that a replay at Wigan would not be beyond the capabilities of our players — remember Altrincham's magnificent achievement in drawing at Tottenham Hotspur in last year's competition. How proud we would be if we were privileged to entertain "The Pensioners" here in Wigan. If we are fortunate enough to win against Northwich, I trust that our supporters making the trip to London will be mindful of our good name and fine reputation when visiting other cities. Please support your team in the best possible way, setting a fine sporting example to the rest of the football world.

In closing, may I wish all the friends of the club a very happy, prosperous and memorable New Year.

Sincerely,
A. O. Horrocks,
Chairman
